The Angmering School is a popular 11-18 semi-rural Comprehensive School set between the South Downs and the South Coast. The Angmering School, and particularly the Lavinia Norfolk Centre, have strength in meeting the diverse and inclusive needs of our students.

'Staff are enthusiastic about working at the school. They are also very positive about leaders' attention to their well-being. Leaders are considerate of staff workload.'* –
Ofsted report 2022

We can offer you:

- A very well-resourced and organised team that is committed to using educational research.
- A collaborative and analytical leadership team who will both support and develop you as a leader.
- A school which has a comprehensive CPD programme, capitalising on the strengths of all staff.
- An inclusive and collegiate school, which recognises the importance of staff wellbeing.

We are looking for:

- A non-teaching Head of Year who will play a major role in focusing on high standards of social, personal and academic development of students within an allocated year group.
- Someone with excellent communication skills as well as the ability to break down barriers that can prevent some students attending regularly and behaving appropriately. The ability to develop relationships with such students and their families is essential.
- A passionate and inspirational leader who will also oversee the academic progress of students in a year group.
- The ability to take the lead in delivering and organising assemblies.
- To be part of the safeguarding team and undertake regular training.
- Someone who is enthusiastic, proactive and resourceful.
