Word of the Week

This week's word of the week is the Latin root word cred. Cred means to believe. This root word appears in a number of words such as credit. Credit for example, is the ability of a customer to obtain goods or services before payment, based on the trust that payment will be made in the future, or publicly acknowledge a contributor's role in the production of (something published or broadcast).

Can you think of other words that incorporate cred?

Summer Production Auditions!

The summer show this year will be Mary Poppins. Auditions will be held for Acting/Singing roles after school in P34 on the 15th of January in front of Mr Pearson and Miss Spight, Dance auditions will be held on the 17th of January after school in P38 where you will learn a short sequence and perform it back to Miss Robinson and Miss Spight. The cast list will then be posted in the Drama/Dance Corridor on the 22nd of January, with rehearsals starting on the 24th of January. Please email Miss Spight (sspight@theangmeringschool.co.uk) to be added to the google classroom to gain access to the audition pieces and so she can create a list of names for the audition.

Career of the Week - Nursing

You can get into nursing through a university course or an apprenticeship.

You'll usually need: 4 or 5 GCSEs at grades 9 to 4 (A* to C), or equivalent, including English, maths and science and 2 or 3 A levels, including a science, or a level 3 diploma in science.

A nurse would usually undertake these duties: take temperatures, blood pressures and pulse rates, give drugs and injections, treat wounds and set up drips, monitor the progress of patients and update records, work with doctors and other healthcare professionals to decide what care to give, give advice to patients and their relatives.

Did you know nursing is the UK's most employable type of degree, with 94% of students getting a job within six months of finishing their course?

Spellathon Champion 2023

Before the holidays we saw a very close and exciting battle to become the Angmering School spelling champion 2023!

It went down to the last two, Y7 representative Alfie Towner and Y11 Michael Marshall who fought admirably over the final word 'playwright' crowning 2023 winner Michael Marshall!

Well done to everyone involved!
