Word of the Week

This week's word of the week is the prefix Mal-. Mal means bad or wrongful. If you see it at the beginning of the word you can infer that it means bad or something isn't working as it should. Examples include malformation and malpractice. What other examples can you think of, can you use them in your written or verbal work and in which subjects will you come across the word mal this week?

Book Fair for Year 7!

Exciting News for Year 7 - the Usborne Book Fair is coming to school! On Tuesday afternoon (p5) you will preview the displays with your teachers. Make a note of any books you would like to read, and perhaps your parents will order them when they come to the meeting in school that evening. Alternatively, pass the note to the Librarians because our Usborne rep is going to let us choose 6 books for the Library for every ten books ordered from the Book Fair.

Student News

A quick shoutout to Georgie Crossman in year 7! You may not know this, but Georgie has some very impressive kickboxing skills. In fact, he has been selected to represent Team England in the amateur k1/Kickboxing world championships this year in Munich, Germany. The tournament starts on October 19th, 2023.

Georgie is already a 2-time European K1 champion and a British K1 Champion. Needless to say, he's a force to be reckoned with in the ring. We have no doubt that he will add even more achievements to his name in Germany. Let's all wish Georgie the best of luck in the tournament!

Marcus

Rashford

Manchester

United

Footballer

Rashford joined United at the age of seven. He scored on his England debut in May 2016, becoming the youngest English player to score in his first senior international match.

Rashford has been praised for using his platform to be a political activist and philanthropist to drive societal change. He is a campaigner against racism, homelessness and child hunger in the UK. He has been recognised for his efforts by organisations both within and outside of sport.

For the 2020 World Book Day, Rashford supported a campaign to help share a million stories. He also agreed to judge a poetry competition for children with hearing impairments, and began learning sign language in preparation.

He has teamed with Macmillan Publishers to launch a book club to help vulnerable and underprivileged children experience the "escapism of reading".
