CAREER OF THE WEEK

Careers Adviser

CAREERS ADVISERS HELP PEOPLE MAKE DECISIONS ABOUT THEIR EDUCATION, TRAINING AND WORK OPTIONS

YOU CAN GET INTO THIS CAREER BY:

- a university course
- an apprenticeship
- working towards this role

CAREER PROGRESSION:

With experience, you could:

- work with specific groups like adults, graduates or young people with special needs
- become a careers leader in school or college
- co-ordinate careers services and manage a team of advisers
- go into careers coaching, resettlement or work-placement services
- be self-employed as a consultant or freelance adviser

UNIVERSITY

You can do a postgraduate diploma, or master's degree, in career guidance after completing an undergraduate degree in any subject.

Postgraduate courses take 1 year full time or 2 years part time and lead to the Qualification in Career Development (QCD).

People often apply to do a postgraduate career guidance qualification after working in teaching, youth work or social services.

APPRENTICESHIP

You could apply to do a Career Development Professional Level 6 (non-degree) Apprenticeship.

This takes 2 years to complete.

You may be able to do an Employability Practitioner Level 4 Higher Apprenticeship, if you're working in careers or education, then go on to complete a level 6 career guidance qualification.

DAY TO DAY YOU COULD:

- work with people individually or in groups
- plan careers programmes for school, college and university students
- offer advice and guidance face-to-face, online, or by telephone
- explore how skills, abilities and interests relate to potential careers
- encourage clients to develop their career decision-making skills
- build links between employers, schools, universities and training providers
- research and provide careers and labour market information
- give support to make decisions, overcome barriers and plan next steps

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT GAVIN BOWLES (GBOWLES@THEANGMERINGSCHOOL.CO.UK)

FIRST AID REMINDER

Our First Aid room is located in B14 and can be accessed at break and lunchtime.

Should you injure yourself or feel unwell during or between lessons, please let your teacher know and they will contact a member of the on call team to come and see you in your classroom.
