Dear Parents/Carers,

Year 7 have had a fantastic term and brilliant start to life at The Angmering School. We are extremely proud of them and look forward to continuing their journey with them in the New Year.

We have had some great Christmas themed events this week including our Christmas dinner and jumper day today.

May I take this opportunity to wish you and your families a very Happy Christmas and New Year.

Have a lovely weekend.

Kind regards

Mrs Hook

SPOTLIGHT ON

BOYS DANCE SHOWCASE

Our Boys dance group attended the showcase at The University of Chichester this week.

Students from year 7 and 9 from The Angmering School performed with energy and characterisation in the showroom alongside boys from other schools across West Sussex.

Their piece explored a main character who is battling with his inner voice, a bit like the everyday pressure we feel at school. Sometimes we want to stay focused, stay calm, and make the right choices, but there's also that louder side that wants to act out, fit in, or look confident even when we're not.

The Joker was an inspiration for our pieces he represents those moments when emotions take over, and the human side shows us trying to stay true to who we really are.

University of Brighton

The University of Brighton are holding free Saturday club and holiday masterclass opportunities for students.

Applications are now open for Saturday clubs and holiday masterclasses, giving students in years 7-11 the chance to take part in a subject based project led by staff and students.

All sessions are free to attend. For Saturday clubs, it is asked that students commit to attending all sessions for their chosen club and that students attending a holiday masterclass attend for the whole session.

To apply, students should fill in the Saturday club and holiday masterclass application form with their parents/carers. Priority is given to students who meet our widening participation criteria.

Sport studies holiday masterclass - for years 7 and 8
